Glossary

- Total loss insurance claim is compensated by automobile insurance where the repair cost of the damaged vehicle exceeds the vehicle's value (as deemed appropriate by the insurance company) (presumptive total loss) and where the damaged vehicle is impossible to repair or cannot perform its function as a vehicle even after repair (absolute total loss) (excluding theft, flooding, and insured accidents)
- Theft insurance claim is an accident in which compensation was received from car insurance because the stolen vehicle could not be found even after 30 days had passed since reporting it to the police.
- flood insurance claim is a damage insurance claims refer to accidents in which damage occurs to a vehicle, such as when water enters the interior while driving causing the engine to stall, or when water enters the engine or other components while parked rendering the vehicle inoperable.
Total loss insurance claims refer to general (other) total loss accidents, excluding flood damage and theft insurance claims.

6. Detailed Insurance Accident History Information

Depending on the source of insurance payouts and repair (estimate) costs, information is provided categorized into 'cases paid by your insured company (your car insurance)' and 'cases paid by another vehicle insurance company (the other party's insurance)'. ' It provides information on cases where damage to the other party's vehicle or property caused by a car accident is paid out of your insurance fund .

If the damage and repair records of the vehicle in question are processed simultaneously by both your car insurance and the other party's insurance due to mutual fault, they will be displayed only in 'My Car Insurance' and omitted from 'Opponent's Insurance'.

No insurance claim history

- Some errors may occur due to the data collection method used by Car History. If you have any doubts, please give us a call.
 - The above 'repair (estimate) costs' represent the repair and estimate (parts/labor/painting) costs excluding indirect damages such as rental car fees and loss of use fees, as well as comparative negligence amounts, from the insurance payout made by the insurance company, and differ from the actual insurance payout.
 - The 'Repair History Information' mentioned above is provided on a limited basis, only if we possess insurance repair work records for the relevant accident vehicle.
- We will strive to better organize our data in the future so that more repair history information can be provided.

Glossary

- Repair (Estimate) Cost is an event that a vehicle is damaged in a car accident, the insurance payout provided by the insurance company consists of the costs or estimates required to repair the vehicle, excluding indirect damages such as vehicle transportation expenses, rental fees, and loss of use charges, as well as amounts offset for comparative negligence, and comprises parts costs, labor costs, and painting fees.
- Unconfirmed accident refers to an accident that has been reported to the insurance company as an automobile insurance accident but has not yet been finalized because the accident processing is not complete, or an accident that has been finalized but has not been processed because the relevant data has not yet been transferred to the Korea Insurance Development Institute (transmission once a month, takes 2 to 3 months).
