Glossary

- Total loss insurance claim refers to an accident compensated by automobile insurance where the repair cost of the damaged vehicle exceeds the vehicle's value (as deemed appropriate by the insurance company) (presumptive total loss) and where the damaged vehicle is impossible to repair or cannot perform its function as a vehicle even after repair (absolute total loss) (excluding theft, flooding, and insured accidents)
- Theft insurance claim refers to an accident in which compensation was received from car insurance because the stolen vehicle could not be found even after 30 days had passed since reporting it to the police.
- flood insurance claim refers to damage insurance claims refer to accidents in which damage occurs to a vehicle, such as when water enters the interior while driving causing the engine to stall, or when water enters the engine or other components while parked rendering the vehicle inoperable.
Total loss insurance claims refer to general (other) total loss accidents, excluding flood damage and theft insurance claims.

6. Detailed Insurance Accident History Information

 While vehicle 371Ma8994 is not covered by Own Damage Coverage, it is not possible to provide accident history information processed by my insurance .

Non-subscription period May 2022 – January 2023

Depending on the source of insurance payouts and repair (estimate) costs, information is provided categorized into 'cases paid by your insured company (your car insurance)' and 'cases paid by another vehicle insurance company (the other party's insurance)' . ' It provides information on cases where damage to the other party's vehicle or property caused by a car accident is paid out of your insurance fund .

If the damage and repair records of the vehicle in question are processed simultaneously by both your car insurance and the other party's insurance due to mutual fault, they will be displayed only in 'My Car Insurance' and omitted from 'Opponent's Insurance'.

No insurance claim history

- Some errors may occur due to the data collection method used by Car History. If you have any doubts, please give us a call.
- The above 'repair (estimate) costs' represent the repair and estimate (parts/labor/painting) costs excluding indirect damages such as rental car fees and loss of use fees, as well as comparative negligence amounts, from the insurance payout made by the insurance company, and differ from the actual insurance payout.
- The 'Repair History Information' mentioned above is provided on a limited basis, only if we possess insurance repair work records for the relevant accident vehicle. We will strive to better organize our data in the future so that more repair history information can be provided.

Glossary

- Repair (Estimate) Cost refers to the event that a vehicle is damaged in a car accident, the insurance payout provided by the insurance company consists of the costs or estimates required to repair the vehicle, excluding indirect damages such as vehicle transportation expenses, rental fees, and loss of use charges, as well as amounts offset for comparative negligence, and comprises parts costs, labor costs, and painting fees.
- Unconfirmed accident refers to an accident that has been reported to the insurance company as an automobile insurance accident but has not yet been finalized because the accident processing is not complete, or an accident that has been finalized but has not been processed because the relevant data has not yet been transferred to the Korea Insurance Development Institute (transmission once a month, takes 2 to 3 months).

- Non-subscription period During which information on automobile repair costs paid under Own Damage Coverage cannot be provided due to the period of non-subscription to Own Damage Coverage.

Notice regarding service usage restrictions

The used car accident history information service is provided based on automobile insurance repair payment records (since 1996) from 12 non-life insurance companies handling automobile insurance. Therefore, the used car history information service cannot be provided in the following cases.

- Cases where the claim was handled at the insured's expense without reporting to the insurance company, even though an accident occurred
- Cases where payment was not made due to reasons such as exemption or cancellation, even though an accident was reported

■ Repair costs represent the expenses for vehicle repair-related items determined by the insurance company for the purpose of calculating the payout, and may differ from the actual insurance payout received.

- Cases where the claim was handled at the insured's expense after reporting the accident

- Cases where compensation for damage to the vehicle is received from a transportation mutual aid association (taxi mutual aid, freight mutual aid, bus mutual aid, etc.) rather than automobile insurance, etc.

This used car accident history information is for supplementary purposes only and should not be used as a decisive basis for judgment. Therefore, if you wish to verify the quality of the used car accurately, please have it inspected by a professional vehicle diagnostic company.
